

A TRIBUTE TO A VOLUNTEER WHO BECAME FAMILY

Carolyn Rogers was a New Zealander and a qualified primary school teacher. She taught at the School of Hope from July 2018 until late August of the same year.

She left with the promise to return and continue to support the abused children with their education. Sadly, Carolyn encountered an illness that was too severe for her to keep her promise.

Lately, SVSG received an email noting "We act for the Estate of the late Carolyn Jane Rogers. It was a request in her Will to donate $5,000 to your organization."

Today, the SVSG Aiga is mourning the loss of one of its dedicated volunteers who became family. Eternal rest dearest Carolyn Rogers 🙏❤️ Condolences to the grieving family.
