PRESS RELEASE

SVSG Celebrates Jai Opetaia's Triumph and His Ongoing Support for Our Children

08 December 2025

Apia, Samoa

The Samoa Victim Support Group (SVSG) proudly congratulates Jai Opetaia for successfully retaining the IBF and Ring Magazine Cruiserweight Titles following his outstanding victory over Cinkara Stan last weekend.

This remarkable achievement is yet another testament to Jai's discipline, determination, and world-class talent. But for SVSG, Jai is more than a global champion, he is a true hero of the heart.

Over the years, Jai has visited the Campus of Hope multiple times. Each visit has been marked by his warm smile, his gentle presence, and his willingness to spend quality time with the children under our care. He listens, he encourages, and he reminds them that no dream is too big and no challenge is too great. His words and actions have inspired many of our children to believe in their own potential, especially those who have faced unimaginable hardships.

"Jai carries his titles with strength, but carries his spirit with humility," said SVSG President Siliniu Lina Chang. "He leaves a lasting imprint on our children every time he walks through the gates of the Campus of Hope."

SVSG expresses its deepest gratitude to Jai for his unwavering support, compassion, and the genuine love he shows for our young ones. His victory in the ring reflects the same spirit he shows outside of it, courage, purpose, and heart.

Congratulations once again, Champ! Your journey continues to inspire not only the world of sports, but the hearts of our children and our nation.
